

Not All Who Wander Are Lost: The Visibility of (Semi-) Nomadic Communities in the Evolution of Human Societies

Postdoctoral Seminar of the Jausсен & Savignac Program

organized by

Silvia Lischi

(Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne, Jausсен & Savignac Center, UMR 8167 Orient & Méditerranée)

at

the Institut national d'histoire de l'art (INHA),
2 rue Vivienne 75002 Paris

Tuesday, 17 March - INHA, DEMARGNE Room, 2:00 p.m.–3:30 p.m.

«Rethinking the Concept of (Semi-)Nomadic Communities: Concepts, Models, and Archaeological Evidence from Dhofar»

Silvia Lischi

Monday, 23 March - INHA, BENJAMIN Room, 1:00 p.m.–3:00 p.m.

«Rethinking Pastoral Mobility in Anatolia (2nd–1st Millennium BCE): Evidence-Led Approaches to Herding and Movement»

Valentina Orsi (Research Center for Anatolian Civilizations – ANAMED, Koç University, Istanbul)
& Anacleto D'Agostino (University of Pisa)

Tuesday, 31 March - INHA, DEMARGNE Room, 2:00 p.m.–4:00 p.m.

«Geo-Ethnoarchaeology of Pastoralism: Rethinking Mobile Societies through the CAMP Project»

Stefano Biagetti (Pompeu Fabra University and ICREA – Institució Catalana de Recerca i Estudis Avançats, Barcelona)

Tuesday, 12 May - INHA, INGRES Room, 12:00 p.m.–2:00 p.m.

«Writing in Non-Literate Contexts: The Intersection between Epigraphy and Culture in Two Pre-Islamic Nomadic Contexts»

Ahmad Al-Jallad (Ohio State University, USA) & Alessia Prioretta (CNRS – UMR 8167 «Orient et Méditerranée»)

Orient &
Méditerranée
UMR 8167